

Funding Streams

1. Title I formula funding

- a. Adult Funding ($1,431,021 for PY20/21)
 - Eligibility determined Primarily by income level
 - Eligibility can also be established by presence of a “significant barrier” to employment (e.g. ESL, ex-offender, absence of HS diploma)
 - Up to 20% of our Title I, Adult dollars can be used on incumbent worker training, based on income eligibility for each worker
- b. Dislocated Worker ($1,362,318 for PY20/21)
 - Eligibility determined by unemployment status
- c. Youth ($1,603,018)
 - Eligibility based on income or a series of qualifying conditions (e.g. receipt of public assistance, past or current dependency status, etc.)
 - 75% of funding must be spent on Out-Of-School Youth
- d. TANF Youth
 - Eligibility based on income for youth under 18 years of age

2. EARN (approx. $1,293,116)

3. Rapid Response funding (approx. $300,000 for current program year)

- Targeted to dislocated workers of a specific employer/industry dealing with significant layoffs

4. State/Local Internship Program ($30,000)

- Subsidize wages of about interns for 8 weeks in the summer.

5. Business Education Partnership ($120,000)

- Educate students, parents, and guardians about high priority occupations and career pathways

6. NextGen Industry Partnership – Advanced Diversified Manufacturing, Convening ($168,000)

- State’s new IP model – a partnership of businesses in advanced diversified manufacturing that work with economic development, education, workforce development, and other community partners to improve the coordination of programs

7. PAsmart Pre-Apprenticeship ($60,000)

- System and program development for registered pre-apprenticeship and registered apprenticeship programs in PA